Blog

Contact

'The Artistry Studio'.... "A picture is a poem without words." Explore

Get Ready to Explore the Arts with

Contact Artist

About

Contact

Home Blog

Artist: Salvador Dalí "The Persistence of Memory by Salvador Dalí is a surrealist painting depicting a dreamlike landscape with melting clocks, often referred to as "soft watches," which are draped over objects in a desolate setting, representing the subjective and fluid nature of time, where the boundaries between reality and dreams blur."

Contact Artist

Art: The Persistence of Memory

Home About Contact Blog Art: Mona Lisa Artist: Leonardo da vinci

installed in 1804."

Contact Artist

"It should come as no surprise that the most

the few certainties about this work of art.

Gherardini, the wife of Florence merchant famous painting in the world is that mysterious

The sitter in the painting is thought to be Lisa the earliest known Italian portrait to focus so closely on the sitter in a half-length

Blog

woman with the enigmatic smile. But that's one of Francesco del Giocondo, but experts aren't sure. It portrait, according to the Louvre, where it was first

About

Contact

did represent an innovation in art - the painting is

Art: Guernica

Artist: Pablo Picasso

of 20th century culture and history."

Contact Artist

Home

Art: The Birth of Venus

Artist: Sandro Botticelli

Contact Artist

Blog

About

Contact

Contact

Home

Home Blog About HE ARTISTRY STUDIO

Art: Creation of Adam

Artist: Michelangelo

nearly touching. It is one of the most replicated images in history."

Contact Artist

Help

Terms

Privacy Policy

Terms & Condition

